
From: "NRA Competitive Shooting Div" <All_Shooters.UM.A.11.371@www.nranews.org>
To: "D" <>
Sent: Monday, July 13, 2009 9:46 AM
Subject: Twitter Account

Twitter

Dear Competitors,

NRA has established a Twitter account to communicate with our Camp Perry Competitors. NRA will update Twitter followers of any changes or new information pertaining to the National Rifle and Pistol Championships. You can sign on to get our updates by going to; www.twitter.com/nrachamps This site will become extremely important if there are rain delays or other conditions that remove competitors from the line. We will use Twitter to notify competitors when to report back to the line and any other special events or condition changes. Competitors and friends can also keep up with Camp Perry scores and other activities by checking the NRA blog at www.nrablog.com.

Competitor's scores may be followed at <http://www.nrahq.org/compete/champ3.asp>

Thank you,
Mike Krei, Director
NRA Competitive Shooting Division