

NATIONAL RIFLE ASSOCIATION Women's Awards Program

In recognition of the significant contributions made by women in the areas of Second Amendment advocacy, education, volunteerism, hunting and shooting sports activities, the National Rifle Association bestows the:

- ⇒ Sybil Ludington Women's Freedom Award upon women whose contributions have been made at the national level
- ⇒ Marion P. Hammer Woman of Distinction Award upon women whose contributions have been made at the local, state and/or regional levels

Award nominations for the 2010 awards are being accepted until November 1, 2009. Many women have made significant contributions in the areas listed above; you probably know a few of them. Please take a moment to nominate them for an award appropriate to their contributions. This is the perfect way to recognize their hard work and dedication.

For more information about NRA's Women's Awards Program, please call Patty Zollman at 800-861-1166 or visit www.nrahq.org/women/index.asp to download nomination forms.

Please note: Women may not be nominated for both the Sybil Ludington Women's Freedom Award and the Marion P. Hammer Woman of Distinction Award in the same year.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: NOVEMBER 1, 2009
